

Torrance OES Installs New Officers in Colorful Rites

"Blue Birds of Happiness" furnished a lovely theme for the 49th installation of officers of the Torrance Chapter of the Eastern Star held last Friday evening at the Masonic Temple. In the west was a large musical staff with musical notes decorated in ivy. The background was turquoise blue with white glittered letters spelling out "Blue Birds of Happiness." The Star Point pedestals were decorated with white bird cages and blue flower birds.

Julia Lougee, installing organist, played as Billie Kerber and Jeannette Clark, honorary marshals, and past matrons escorted Lawrence Miller, master of ceremonies. Worthy Matron Bettina Miller and Worthy Patron John Pennington entered. Installing officers were: Florence Viellenave, matron; Vincent Viellenave, patron; Vivian Cook, marshal; Phyllis Peverley, chaplain.

The hostesses, wearing turquoise blue evening gowns, formed a line on each side of the altar as the Holy Bible was carried into the room by Mae Mochan, daughter of Bernice Ruppel. Escorts were Arlene Lougee, Raymond Lougee and Pat Turman.

Rev. Walter Graham gave the invocation and Darel Kelley led the pledge of allegiance.

As Winifred Ruppel sang "Blue Bird of Happiness" the 1960 officers entered. Installed were Bernice Ruppel, worthy matron, Raymond Lougee, worthy patron; Francis Rajser, associate matron; Raymond Shaffer, associate patron; Vivian Cook, secretary; Helen Carpenter, treasurer; Carolyn Pennington, conductress; Freda Shaffer, associate conductress; Lois Lougee, chaplain; Adele Abbott, marshal; and Garnett Satterfield, organist.

Five Star Points installed were Juanita Thompson, Adah; Requa Shephard, Ruth; Ruth Morris, Esther; Harriette Warnick, Martha; and Ruth Hardin, Electa; Mary McDonald, warder; and Fred Bever, sentinel.

Doris Savage, Deputy Grand Matron of the 80th District, was presented as were a number of representatives from neighboring lodges.

Past officers from Torrance introduced were: Jean and Ernest Mosher, Billie Kerber, Frances Buckley, Hazel and Oscar Fossum, Jeannette Clark, Edna and Leonard Bobcock, Mildred Edwards, Gladys and Gordon Mothersell, Vivian and Frederick Cook, Joan Simpson, Thomas Foster, Florence and Vincent Viellenave, Phyllis Peverley, Earl Wells, Joyce and Lawrence Miller, Marguerite and Edward Morgan, Fred Bever, Jack Miller, Mae and David Jones, Evelyn Howland and Garnett Satterfield.

Hostesses introduced were Alice Ruppel, chairman, Ruby Clere, Ada Drake, Charlotte Dolan, Florence Childs, Ricks Johnson, Mildred Lugar and Bessie Price. Estill Clers served as flag bearer; John Pennington, prompter and Joyce Kairys, electrician.

Harold Turman sang "The Lord's Prayer" as the Bible was closed.

A reception was held in the dining room which had been decorated by Ethel Peverley and her committee, Lea Wells, Caroline Hedrick, Frances and Phyllis Peverley and Frances Warnick. Those pouring were Frances Buckley, Edna Babcock, Mildred Evans, Hazel Fossum, Evelyn Howland, Mae Jones, Joyce Miller, Jean Mosher, Gladys Mothersell and Joan Simpson, all past matrons.

GAVEL TRANSFER . . . Mrs. Bernice Ruppel, left, newly installed worthy matron of the Torrance Chapter of the Eastern Star accepts the gavel from Mrs. Bettina Miller, retiring worthy matron, at the 49th installation of the local chapter. The impressive ceremony was held at the Masonic Temple and a "Blue Bird of Happiness" theme was used.

Delta Zeta Yule Party Announced

Annual Christmas party for the South Bay Chapter of Delta Zeta Alumnae will be held on Dec. 16, 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Jack C. Whipps, 2011 W. 179th St., Torrance.

During a brief business meeting, the chapter will complete plans for the Southern California Council of Delta Zeta's benefit luncheon fashion show, "Flame Fantasy," to be held Saturday, Feb. 6, 1960 at the Beverly Hilton Hotel. Gail Patrick Jackson, a Delta Zeta alumnae and producer of the Perry Mason television series, will be a participant in the program as well as June Van Dyke, fashion coordinator and television actress.

The philanthropy to benefit from this event is the Unibetic Camp for diabetic children, sponsored by the Los Angeles Metabolic Clinic.

Phi Mus Fill Toy Cart at Yule Party

On Saturday, La Venta Inn will be the setting of the annual Christmas luncheon of the South Bay Phi Mu Club. This year the Phi Mus will entertain friends and members of their family at this traditional affair.

The luncheon will start at 12 noon. The Christmas gift exchange will be for children between four and nine years of age. The gifts will be placed on the Club's toy cart for the Hawthorne Hospital. Each member of the club and guest will donate a gift for this philanthropy.

The luncheon will be presided over by Mrs. J. P. Lanning, president. In her official capacity she will introduce Mrs. George Hammer, vice-president and social service chairman, who will present a check for $25 to the club for use in the construction of the toy cart. This money was earned by the club members in their recent Christmas cards and toys sale.
